About Me

Web developer specializing in building responsive applications with React.js and Node.js. Passionate about problem-solving, teamwork, and crafting seamless user experiences. My relocation to Europe has strengthened my adaptability and ability to collaborate in diverse environments. I hold an EU passport, allowing me to work freely across Europe.

Experience

Dunno | Full-Stack Developer

Nov 2023 – Nov 2024

Develop and maintain full-stack web applications using JavaScript/TypeScript, React/Next.js, and Tailwind CSS on the frontend, with Node.js, Express.js, and PostgreSQL on the backend. Focus on building scalable, efficient solutions while collaborating with an agency to deliver high-quality projects.

plannet.cc |

Full-Stack Developer

Aug 2022 – Oct 2023

In my role as a full-stack developer at plannet.cc, I focused on delivering robust software solutions through agile practices. I actively engaged with clients and team members to ensure seamless project coordination. My expertise in JavaScript frameworks and Node.js allowed me to write clean, maintainable code, significantly improving product iteration and client satisfaction.

Frontend Developer

Oct 2021 – Aug 2022

As a Frontend Developer at plannet.cc, I focused on creating user-centric MVPs and SPAs, transforming Figma designs into interactive web applications. My role involved integrating backend microservices to ensure a smooth data experience, which significantly enhanced user satisfaction and engagement.
